My dear Miss Wright:-

I am glad to forward to you under another cover the First Book of "Spanish Songs of Old California."

The Second Book will be out some time in the Fall -- Mr. Farwell and I are now at work on it.

I am very glad that you find the Songs suited to your school -- and I am quite sure you are right in saying that no Anglo Saxon songs could have the same appeal.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Sta. Da. Margarita Wright,

Dear Sir:-

Please be so kind as to send me one copy of your "Spanish Songs of Old California", the first book. Have you published another book? If so, I should like to see announcements of it. These songs are just what we are delighted to have in our school, for they have the Spanish spirit which delights our children, in a way which no Anglo Saxon or other translated songs can do.

Enclosed please find a check to your order for a dollar rifty cents ($1.50), which is, I believe the price of your book.

Sincerely yours,

Margarita Wright.
